They is explanation of pictures on back. I have Coloring Europe -London Italy preorders. Hope hope there are more. I will buy all of them. I would give 10 stars if possible.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Amazing! I have every book in the Coloring Europe ...By BrynleahAmazing! I have every book in the Coloring Europe series. Vive la France is as stunning as the rest. The paper is thicker, and perfect for coloring. I use artist grade wax based pencils, and no issues. I love how the left page of the book will have a postage stamp, with a summary of the page your coloring on the right. For Instance, "Arc de triomphe de l'etoile, Paris: Located at the juncture of twelve major avenues, the Arc de Triomphe stands proud over a bustling center"" or "A window on the city, Paris: So much to see and do, right outside your window!" There are well known landscapes (such as the Arc, Musee du Louvre, the Eiffel Tower, to pastries, window views, Paris shopping (love the handbags), and little scenes from around the country. It's a beautiful and refreshing book, and this series is my favorite books to color. You can relax and soak in the culture and feeling of France while you let your imagination color in the pages. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great quality and pictures By R. L. Wilson This coloring book has the best quality paper and drawings of any coloring book I've ordered. This was unexpected because the price is extremely reasonable, considering the great quality. I ordered and received the London coloring book, with which I am equally pleased, as well.

A visual travelogue of the world's capital of fashion, food, and art, offering hours of coloring Coloring Europe: Vive la France is the second release in Waves of Color's "Coloring Europe" line—a collection of coloring books that shows off the fun and culture of Europe's most iconic locales. Explore the country of France with over sixty pages of detailed artwork and memorable scenery. From cobblestone streets to evening verandas, and the view from the Eiffel Tower as you look upon the delicacies of French cuisine, experience the charms of France while enjoying hours of coloring.
