Lizzie Preston, Chellie Carroll : Colour Therapy 20 Notecards Envelopes before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Colour Therapy 20 Notecards Envelopes:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Notecards Provide Hours of Adult Coloring with a Practical PurposeBy MerKI really love these note cards except for one thing. A couple of the cards have animal motifs that I would never send to anyone. This however is a matter of preference and someone else might enjoy these cards. I have sent several already.

Coloring fans can now share their creative talents by completing the greeting cards in this wonderfully designed set. There are 20 blank cards and envelopes to scrawl messages inside, each with an elegant and original, partially-colored illustration on the front for senders to customize and color in. There are 10 different designs, each with two different complementary color pallets. Each card is securely glued into the beautifully bound hard case, forming a well-designed pad.

About the Author Lizzie Preston is a versatile designer and illustrator. Lizzie has a wealth of experience in creating greeting cards. Chellie Carroll began her creative career as a designer working on projects for the launch of Playstation 2 and BBC3 before turning to illustration full time in 2000. Chellie has worked for Cadburys, Kelloggs, Cancer Research, and Readers Digest. She works primarily with computer-based vector line images and has a flair for intricate zen-tangle drawings which have featured in Relaxing Art Therapy and A Calming Colouring Book for Kids.
