This bad-taste colouring book uses black humour in its purest form (the colour black). A satirical, illustrated book that turns the current colouring-in craze on its head by inviting readers to colour the pages completely in black for alternative psychological 'benefits'. Whether you want to be melancholy or mirthless, morose or moody; this book allows you to enjoy all of the fun of the new colouring book zeitgeist without conforming to the mainstream or running the risk of accidentally acquiring a sunny disposition.
