Claudia Simone Dorchain, Felice Naomi Wonnemberg : Contemporary Jewish Reality in Germany and Its Reflection in Film (Europ Isch-J Dische Studien Beitr GE) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Contemporary Jewish Reality in Germany and Its Reflection in Film (Europ

Isch-J Dische Studien Beitr GE):

The notion of ""self"" and ""other"" and its representation in artwork and literature is an important theme in current cultural sciences as well as in our everyday life in contemporary Western societies. Moreover, the concept of ""self"" and ""other"" and its imaginary dichotomy is gaining more and more political impact in a world of resurfacing ideology-ridden conflicts. The essays deal with Jewish reality in contemporary Germany and its reflection in movies from the special point of view of cultural sciences, political sciences, and religious studies. This anthology presents challengingly new insights into topics rarely covered, such as youth culture or humor, and finally discusses the images of Jewish life as realities still to be constructed.
