How to make costumes for your cat!!By Miranda LesterThis a neat book with such cute, fun illustrations covering step-by-step instructions on how to make your own costumes for your cat! The best part is that it does not require a sewing machine or sewing skills. You need paper, a pair of scissors, measuring tape and odds ends you usually have laying around your house.My cats already have an entire giant tote filled with costumes, hats and collars purchased from Petco, Petsmart, BestBuy, Walmart, Target, BigLots, Gabriel Brothers, and other sources. Several of these costumes were intended for small dogs. Apparently, not all cat owners dress their cats for every holiday or family portraits. I only dress them up long enough for memorable photo shoots and/or entertaining guests (30 minutes at the most).I also enjoy making some original costumes and this book has some good ideas. Note that because the costumes in this book are not sewn they are less sophisticated and permanent than the ones purchased in stores, however you can customize them to make them one-of-a-kind!!If your cat is patient and lets you dress him or her up and you are a creative, scrap-booking type of person then this is the book for you!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Cat Costumes BookBy BRONX TO LA LADYI thought this would be cute to see and maybe even get some new ideas for my cat, Chloe, who used to enter costume contests each Halloween. Was I ever so WRONG!!! This book was a HUGE waste of time and MONEY! It was not as it was presented. It was a great hoax and money maker for the author. I think should be ashamed for selling it! This book proves that needs to get serious about quality control of its merchandise!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy emksfun ideas
