Kat Su : Crap Taxidermy before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Crap Taxidermy:

It is a great gag gift, complete with instructions on how to make your own crap taxidermy. They are different sections for different kinds of "crap taxidermy", lik "it's all in the eyes" where a taxidermist went rogue and put either googly eyes on it or they just look really wrong. There is also an anthropomorphic one, where it features some taxidermy does doing more human things, like fishing or wearing clothes, most of which are well done taxidermy, but odd in their own way! I'd recommend this to anyone who can get a chuckle over a job badly done. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Tons of hilarious photos - great value. By Rhiannon Panthers This book is full of amazingly bad pictures. Everyone who sees it ends up laughing and scratching their heads in amazement. This is my go to coffee table book. I think it is well put together and a great value for the price. I still laugh when I go through it and I've had it for a couple of months. Everyone from my seven-year-old stepson to my 60-year-old mom thinks it's a trip. If bad taxidermy has ever made you laugh or has ever fascinated you, this is the end all be all book for you. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Instructions for Making Your Own Included! By JaeloeI got this book for my daughter after she casually mentioned it "looked interesting." It is flat-out hysterical!! It was the hit of our family's Christmas party!! My brothers especially enjoyed the part at the back with instructions for making your own "crap taxidermy" small rodent. One of them has threatened to taxidermy his daughter's hamster if she fails to care for it properly. So far, so good!!

A humorous look at what happens when taxidermy goes terribly wrong, by the founder of the hit website crappytaxidermy.com. A relaxed toad enjoying a smoke and a brew. A cat with eerily flexible front legs. A smiling lion with receding gums. Whether you choose to laugh or cringe at these spectacularly bad attempts at taxidermy, you won't be able to tear your eyes away from the curiosities inside. This volume brings together the very best of the worst

(along with a DIY "Stuff Your Own Mouse" lesson by an Insect Preparator from the American Museum of Natural History), showcasing the most perverse yet imaginative anatomical reconstructions of the animal kingdom you'll ever see.

Featured in Entertainment Weekly's "Must List" "Sick, right? Yes. But, also, let's face it, kinda funny." --
