The fun, joy and happiness just jump off the pages. Happiness is contagious. Gloson's poetry is safe, happy, practical and well written. The best part is that these happy thoughts came from a child. Books, games and toys should follow this direction of joy! The drawings are phenomenal artwork by a child. These hand-drawn illustrations are a wash of bright and vibrant colors that just surround the mind creating more joy. I'm happy to see that this is a children's book created by a real child. This is peer inspiring. I hope this excellent book serves as an example to other children, as well as to adults. Teachers can use this book not only as a good read-aloud book for their students, but as a tool to appreciate poetry and artwork. Gloson's book should inspire other students in classrooms to write and/or illustrate books, either individually or as teams. I highly recommend Gloson's book, Creative Funny Poetry for Kids, for children of all ages. You don't have to buy a Kindle to read the Kindle version of Gloson's book. Kindle will download free Kindle apps to your electronic devices. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Really funny poems from a kid! By Valerie L What a great idea to publish a book that gives you better insight into the mind of a child! The poems are funny and touching. The illustrations are great and the poems had my 5 year nephew laughing like crazy. Some of these are just hilarious like "My Dad's obsessed with Elephants". Only from the mind of a child! This little boy is a talented poet and artist. I really enjoyed this book! So will you and your kids! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Elementary School Counselor By Sharon I ordered both of Gloson's books and emailed him a personal message. He is so talented and creative, I think my students will be in awe and I plan on using his books not only for Poetry week, but to stress that he is an author of fabulous poetry and has already published 2...TWO books. Way to go Gloson! Sooo inspiring!

To watch the book trailer for this video, please visit: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t77QbEh0NEM> Most poetry books are written by adults, but this one is written by a kid (Gloson), which makes it extraordinary! It is written from child's perspective. Reading these funny poems is like eating potato chips - you won't want to stop till you finish it! Containing 20 wacky poems, this humorous poetry book is made specially for kids and also those who love fun. These creative and imaginative poems will surely tickle your funny bone! Gloson's colorful and vivid illustrations make reading extremely fun. Different styles of presentation keep boredom at bay! You will learn about why you should clean your room, what you shouldn't forget on a picnic, why you shouldn't drink tea while driving a car, why you shouldn't bring home an elephant, and more! So, get ready to jump into this exciting poetry book and smile, giggle, and laugh!

About the Author Gloson Teh is a 15-year-old funny poet and a blogger from Malaysia. He was born on Jan 3, 1998. In his free time, he likes to write poetry, compose music, blog, make films, and write his biographies in the third person. Gloson's writing style is imaginative, dramatic, artistic, and simple. He likes to rhyme with silliness and use some redundant redundancy. He likes to write about funny incidents, exaggerated ideas, and unexpected unexpectedness! OK, enough with the redundant redundancy. Anyway, Gloson has been writing poetry since the age of 9, after he discovered funny poetry on the Internet. Because those poems were so funny, he was inspired to write his own. Ever since then, Gloson has been writing to bring joy to children and brighten people's days. His biggest accomplishments are amusing the Malaysian Prime Minister and his wife with one of his poems and being recognized officially as the Youngest Published Poet in Malaysia. He also occasionally makes poet visits to schools and acts out his poems animatedly to make many kids creative and imaginative. Perhaps, in the future, he would blog about his funny poetry film accompanied by self-composed background music! Who knows?
