QuigleyWhen back in the 1970's, I was told by a church member about this little group who did comedy. I was skeptical at first Christian comedy group-how is that possible? I bought "Fun in the Sun" on cassette tape and rolled with laughter. I laughed so hard, my sides hurt but I couldn't stop laughing. The two skits I cherished were "Let's Trade in Your Salvation"-A definite jab at Let's Make a Deal" and "Jerusalem Dragnet" a tongue and cheek poke at Dragnet. Alas, I wish I had the recordings still, but after years of playing, tapes only so long. This book,IAF; the works 2 is a satisfying compensation for a rolling with the ups and down of one's faith and having fun with it. After all, as Will Rogers said,"God's gotta have a sense of humor, he made us didn't He?"
