Hugh Morrison : Jewish Jokes: Gags and Funny Stories in the Great Jewish Tradition before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jewish Jokes: Gags and Funny Stories in the Great Jewish Tradition:

You shouldn't read this book if: you think Yom Kippur is a kind of fish...you see a menorah and ask 'is that from IKEA?'...you think a minyan is a cartoon character...you think seder is an alcoholic drink made from apples...when somebody asks 'why is this night different from all other nights' you reply 'the clocks go forward?' You should read this book if you like traditional Jewish gags and funny stories about worried mothers, hen-pecked husbands, argumentative rabbis, yentas and Jewish Princesses! So read this book and have 'long life' and 'long laughter!'
