It was an innocuous enough little story and I did get some enjoyment from it, even if the ending seemed a little flat. Not belly-laugh funny, but humorous in parts

Following the success of his International bestselling first novel, Swingers of West London, set in a West London swing dance class, Clive tells a short story of venturing outside the house after being bedridden for eight weeks. What could possibly go wrong?

About the Author Clive had been a life long fan of TV shows such as Strictly Come Dancing, Dancing With The Stars and SYTYCD but after 10 years of teaching swing dance, Lindy Hop, West coast swing, ballroom dancing and CEROC, he suffered an accident that rid him of his job and his social life. After a decade in the dance world, he combined his wealth of experience, mixed with his ability to tell a good joke, and come up with an INSTANT 5 star rated International #1 Best Seller that has been described as being "Like Cuban Fury... but with punchlines".
