Not For Kids, So stop ComplainingBy Should Be Doing LaundryThis is a parody of Dr Seuss style about the hardships of parenting young ones. It isn't for kids. But it is very funny! A silly, great gift for new first time parents in the throes of sleep deprivation.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. cuteBy

IlovelyJJSI got this book for my sister and her first baby. It is hilarious because it is all so true what happens with new parents. Recommend it, cute story

A childrens book for adults in the vein of the mega-bestselling *Go the F**k to Sleep*, The Kid in the Crib brilliantly reimagines the Dr. Seuss classic, The Cat in the Hat, for beleaguered parents struggling with the anxieties and challenges of parenting in the 21st century. It substitutes the typical worries, frustrations, and challenges of modern parenting for Seuss's original story about a kindly feline and the children he befriends. It lays out the daily power struggle between parents as they each insist that it's the other one's turn to deal with the befouled diaper, and the bleary-headedness that coincides with an infant's sleeping patterns. Parents will chuckle as they read "The kid spat up white/The kid spat up green/The kid spat up more spit up/Than we'd ever seen." This pitch-perfect parody expertly illustrated by graphic designer Felix Schlater paints an honest portrait of parenting that will have moms and dads nodding in recognition and howling with laughter. And it is a story that parents will delight in reading, both to each other--and even to their kids someday.

Praise for Lex Friedmans The Snuggie Sutra: "...I'm recommending it. Passionately. Simply put, this is brilliance on the page... It's all freakin' hilarious." Publishers Weekly
