This is a most amazing book! I have purchased it over the past few years for "little gifts" and each time, the recipient has been thrilled with their gift. Children see God through different eyes than adults see Him. It was a thrill to "re-live" some of my own childhood thoughts on God. This book is a MUST and it is a very inexpensive and much appreciated gift item.

All out of the mouth of babes! The imagination and purity of the children interviewed create conclusions that will tickle you pink! For anyone who has kids or adores kids, this book is a must!

Anyone who appreciates a child's perspective on life will enjoy this collection of answers children gave when asked about God, the Bible, and Christian life. In this book, kids share their insights to questions such as, How do you talk to God? What's heaven like? And, What does God do all day? Humorous and easy to read, this book gives the reader a refreshing look at God through the minds of children.
