About the Author The Author of Kipnuk the Talking Dog and the Kipnuk Adventure Series is Heather Wolf, a California resident who since childhood always dreamed of writing children's stories. Heather has been actively involved in the snow sports industry through snowboarding and mushing. She is a lover of animals and has coached children's sports for many years. After miraculously surviving a near fatal snowboarding accident in 1999, she decided to pursue a career teaching children's snowboarding in Southern California. As a result of the accident, Heather was very passionate about teaching children the safety aspect of snowboarding and mountain awareness skills. In addition, she has been active in volunteering and coaching youth league sports. Over the years, Heather has been involved in acting and more recently was cast as "Hodel" in the musical, Fiddler on the Roof. In her free time, she enjoys cooking, baking, horseback riding and spending time at the beach with her Alaskan malamute, Kipnuk. She also enjoys photography, plays guitar, sings, paints and designs wildflower gardens. Her love of animals and children and many years working with both, influenced her to put her stories down on paper. Note from the author: I would like to thank God for this opportunity. The Kipnuk story/series was inspired by my Alaskan malamute Kipnuk. I really hope that you enjoy the book! -Heather
