By Person in Hiding I have never seen anything like these images. I would assume the town council had something to say about these locations? Ouch!!

FOR SALE: From the creator of TerribleRealEstateAgentPhotos.com, a book of the most baffling property photographs ever taken. With more than 100 previously unpublished photos, early viewing is STRONGLY recommended. The mantra "location, location, location" often concerns buying a house, but some real estate agents would do well to apply it to their photography. Should one, for instance, locate the camera in front of a fossilized garden chair? An overflowing ash tray? An elderly relative hustling out of shot? Has thought been spared for the location of that dirty underwear? Those psychedelic curtains? Clearly out of touch with reality, some of the worst offenders should perhaps consider relocating to another industry. Luckily for us, they haven't yet. The mystifying property photographs gathered here are an endless source of confusion, frustration, and, perversely, satisfaction.
