By RobThis book brings back all the nostalgia for one like me who has entered local shows and won ribbons for cooking, but also provides invaluable resources in the form of hints and tips from the cooks themselves, as well as from those who judge the results, to make sure that even novice cooks have a head start on the rest of the field. Besides the recipes, hints, tips, there are plenty of personal anecdotes and beautiful photos, from now, and from way back when, that really encompass the essence of these agricultural shows, and the experience of showing your culinary masterpieces. It has become a treasured addition to my cookery book collection. 0 of 0 people found the following

Every year, hundreds of talented amateurs spend hours preparing entries for cooking competitions run as part of 600 or so agricultural shows across Australia. In their quest for a precious blue ribbon, they use recipes based on generations of experience and strict judging codes that demand absolute perfection. In this follow-up to her first award-winning book, The Blue Ribbon Cookbook, Liz Harfull brings together 70 tried and true recipes from some of the country's most enthusiastic and talented show cooks. But more than that, The Australian Blue Ribbon Cookbook includes their heart-warming stories and the wisdom, knowledge, and generosity of spirit that bring success, even for novices. Whether it's a traditional Mixed Mustard Pickle or Madeira Cake, mouth-watering Sausage Rolls or Pumpkin Damper, Jenny's Jam Drops or Cousin Barb's Jelly Slice, there is something delicious for everyone to try. The end results may even win you a blue ribbon! Includes metric measurements.
