Mark Geoffrey Young : The Best Ever Book of Ethiopian Jokes: Lots and Lots of Jokes Specially Repurposed for You-Know-Who before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Best Ever Book of Ethiopian Jokes: Lots and Lots of Jokes Specially Repurposed for You-Know-Who:

20% of this book and can't take it anymore. There is nothing Ethiopian about this book. You can take the name Ethiopia out and replace it with any country still it will be a joke. I found a number of jokes I heard before as an American joke. Nothing culturally Ethiopian or specifically Ethiopian. My guess is that the author is raised outside of Ethiopia and the book is written with the assumption that every joke he heard from Ethiopians is an Ethiopian joke.

If you've ever heard a Jewish, Italian, Libyan, Catholic, Irish, Mexican, Polish, Belgian, Norwegian, or an Essex Girl, Newfie, Mother-in-Law, or joke aimed at a minority, this book of Ethiopian jokes is for you. In this not-so-original book, The Best Ever Book of Ethiopian Jokes; Lots and Lots of Jokes Specially Repurposed for You-Know-Who, Mark Young takes a whole lot of tired, worn out jokes and makes them funny again. The Best Ever Book of Ethiopian Jokes is so unoriginal; it's original. And, if you don't burst out laughing from at least one Ethiopian joke in this book, there's something wrong with you. This book has so many Ethiopian jokes; you won't know where to start. For example: Why do Ethiopians wear slip-on shoes? You need an IQ of at least 4 to tie a shoelace. *** An evil genie captured an Ethiopian and her two friends and banished them to the desert for a week. The genie allowed each person to bring one thing. The first friend brought a canteen so he wouldn't die of thirst. The second friend brought an umbrella to keep the sun off. The Ethiopian brought a car door, because if it got too hot she could just roll down the window! *** Did you hear about the Ethiopian who wore two jackets when she painted the house? The instructions on the can said: "Put on two coats." *** Why do Ethiopians laugh three times when they hear a joke? Once when it is told, once when it is explained to them, and once when they understand it. ***
