disappointing bookBy RalphThis book is basically a book of pollack jokes or blond jokes, with "Austrian" substituted for the usual pollack or blond. It is not a book of jokes that Austrians tell or think are funny. Very disappointing book.

If you've ever heard a Jewish, Italian, Irish, Libyan, Catholic, Mexican, Polish, Norwegian, or an Essex Girl, Newfie, Mother-in-Law, or joke aimed at a minority, this book of Rowing jokes is for you. In this not-so-original book, The Best Ever Book of Rowing Jokes; Lots and Lots of Jokes Specially Repurposed for You-Know-Who, Mark Young takes a whole lot of tired, worn out jokes and makes them funny again. The Best Ever Book of Rowing Jokes is so unoriginal, it's original. And, if you don't burst out laughing from at least one Rowing joke in this book, there's something wrong with you. This book has so many Rowing jokes, you won't know where to start. For example: Why do Rowers wear slip-on shoes? You need an IQ of at least 4 to tie a shoelace. *** An evil genie captured a Rower and her two friends and banished them to the desert for a week. The genie allowed each person to bring one thing. The first friend brought a canteen so he wouldn't die of thirst. The second friend brought an umbrella to keep the sun off. The Rower brought a car door, because if it got too hot she could just roll down the window! *** Did you hear about the Rower who wore two jackets when she painted the house? The instructions on the can said: "Put on two coats." *** Why do Rowers laugh three times when they hear a joke? Once when it is told, once when it is explained to them, and once when they understand it. ***
