Great ebook full of classicsBy Kelly KovalskyThe Best Of The World's Classics (Restricted To Prose) Volume II - Rome: 234 b.c.-180 a.d. by Henry Cabot LodgeThis ebook contains many selections that are not easily found. It gives a good sample of each author.

This is a pre-1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality. Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process. Though we have made best efforts - the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience. We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide. This text refers to the Bibliobazaar edition.

About the Author Henry Cabot Lodge (1850-1924) was a Republican senator and historian from Massachusetts. He is best known for his positions on foreign policy, especially his battle with President Woodrow Wilson in 1919 over the Treaty of Versailles. He graduated from Harvard College and was the first student to graduate Harvard University with a PhD in political science. Lodge was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1878 and served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives from 1880-1881; he also represented his home state in the United States House of Representatives from 1887-1893 and in the Senate from 1893-1924. He is the author of a number of historical works, including "Alexander Hamilton", "Hero Tales from American History", "Theodore Roosevelt", and many others.
