Great collection of good jokes about the Bible, church and life!By Alice PruchaDr. Bramer is one of my favorite professors at Dallas Theological Seminary. His lectures are full of God's Word, wisdom, and lots of humor. I am ecstatic that he compiled all his biblical jokes into book form so I can share them with my Bible study class as well as reading them for my own amusement. God definitely has a sense of humor (look at the elephant and giraffe!). Dr. Bramer combines scripture and God's nature with good, clean fun, even lawyer jokes! Admittedly, some are groaners ("How do you know that the author of Hebrews used pest control in his vegetable garden? Because he said, 'Lettuce spray.'") but even they still make you smile, if not laugh out loud. Every book of the Bible has jokes about it from creation to the prophets to the gospels, epistles and yes, even Revelation!Church members and non-church-goers alike will enjoy the jokes. Dr. Bramer pokes fun at church, "religious" people, clergy, and finds the humor in countless situations. A good resource for sermon preparation to lighten a serious topic!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Simply put, this book is a hit for giving ...By Jane A. Fun to read for anyone; but a must have for anyone who leads a Bible study or teaches from God's Word. I highly recommend this book.
